

MEX REBELS KILL TWO AMERICANS

Disregarded Warning from Authorities Mexico City
Officials Claim

WASHINGTON AWAITS REPORT

Mexico City, Thursday, Jan. 8.—F. J. Roney and Earl Bowles, Americans who met death in the Tampico region early this month, were killed by rebels after having disregarded warning from local authorities, who advised them to venture into lawless regions alone according to telegrams to state officials at Tampico given out tonight by the interior department. They were shot by outlaws on the seashore between Camps belonging to the International and Transcontinental Oil companies, it is said.

Advices state that followers of Gen. Manuel Pelaez, outlaw chief and virtually independent ruler in that district had been expecting to receive munitions from a steamer at that point on the coast. Certain bandits who were rivals of adherents of Pelaez were operating near the lagoon of Tamiahua and learned of the expected shipment. They laid in wait at a point where they thought the munitions would be landed and when Roney and Bowles appeared the rebels believed they were carrying arms to the Pelaez force. Fire was opened upon the two men who were killed.

Wait Official Report.
Washington, Jan. 9.—Warnings of local authorities disregard of which reports to the Mexico interior department declared resulted in the killing of F. J. Roney and Earl Bowles, Americans in the Tampico region several days ago amounted in the opinion of officials to nothing more than the failure of the Americans to be compelled to sign before they can obtain a Mexican visa for the Tampico region on their passports.

This waiver, by which the person signing it agrees that no claims in case of harm or death shall be brought by his heirs or employers has never been recognized by the state department. Accordingly, officials held today that Mexico, in order to give a satisfactory reply to the inquiry from this government, must prove that the two men received specific warnings other than those contained in the waiver.

Information reaching the state department today was that the report sustained by Bowles in the "root was made by a Mauser. Cartridges soldiers are known to be the only Mexicans in that region armed with Mausers, officials said. Advices given out in Mexico City, that the two Americans arrested were mistaken for smugglers of munitions to Manuel Pelaez, the rebel chief was discredited by officials who said that it would be impossible for a vessel to land arms at the point stated in the advices as that territory is in entire control of the Carranza forces. Officials also regard as significant that Miguel Sierra, the Mexican who was with the two Americans when they were murdered, escaped without injury.

MYSTERY MAN FOUND IN NEW JERSEY

Strange Case of Apathy Disclosed
By Rev. T. J. Benzley—Victim
Refined and Cultured in His Speech.

Lambertville, N. J., Jan. 9.—A strange case apparently a middle-aged Englishman of Oxford and learned in medicine, surgery and research work, was disclosed today by the Rev. T. J. Benzley, rector of St. Andrews' Episcopal church who is befriending the man. The victim, refined and cultured in his speech was found waiting along a road on the outskirts of the city. His clothes were tattered and when questioned he was unable to recall his name, address or history. Mr. Benzley took him to his parish house.

"He told physicians here things they have forgotten or more than they ever knew," the rector said. "He had a deep knowledge of medicine, surgery and research work and is a gifted musician. He has a dim recollection of having been connected in some way with Professor Huxley, the great English scientist. He also has a dim recollection of Mississippi."

The man of mystery apparently is unable to recall anything except distant recollections of his past life and since the sinking of the Titanic.

"Dr. X," as he christened himself, said in an interview tonight: "I should say that I am a native of England—that's certain. That I attended Oxford—that's certain; that I have had English church experience—that is most certain; that there is strong presumption that my early life was spent in Mississippi."

How long he has been suffering in this manner, whence he came and thru what experiences he went before being found on the outskirts of the town watching a sunset, the man says he cannot remember. While being questioned by Dr. Benzley the man pointed to a picture of a President Wilson and asked who it was.

"I remember when President McKinley was shot and Roosevelt became president and then I remember that he was elected," he said.

"Do you remember when he died?" he was asked.

"No," replied the man of mystery, "I do not."

The first that the man was victim heard of the war was when Dr. Benzley told him about it and appeared startled when he learned that Germany was a republic.

"Dr. X," recalled vividly the tragedy of the sinking of the Titanic in 1912 but he is positive, however, that he was not a passenger on the vessel. When asked if he had a wireless, the stranger answered: "I have no recollection of any, probably I have none."

The first day at the rectory the man saw the piano and he sat down and began to play. When taken into the church, he played the organ with ease. One of the most vivid impressions which the man has retained is that of a large, colonial house in which he thinks is the state of Mississippi and where he spent his childhood. The man who is apparently between 50 and 60 years has eyes of a baffling color. He describes them as being greenish yellow.

We published an item regarding the mother's letter and information came promptly from the young man himself, now a resident of this city on Spaulding Place. Mr. Edmunds states that he left Jacksonville some years ago and went to Oklahoma to reside. While he was there, his mother married again and also moved her place of residence, so that he had lost all trace of her and did not know where to address her. It is probable that the aged mother will soon receive a letter from the son here.

DEFENDS FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Culver, Declares Charges Against Body That It Is "Hot Red"
of Bolshevism Denied.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Charges that arrests of federal trade commission employees, made in the recent department of justice campaign against "reds" have been the result of "frame-ups designed to build the theory that the commission is a hot-bed of Bolshevism," were made today by W. B. Culver of that body before the senate agriculture committee.

Culver intimated that the larger Chicago packing concerns had connived to attack that result and involved Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled ambassador of the Russian soviet republic to the United States and S. Nuorteva, Martens' assistant in the commerce department to prove the point. Culver voiced a demand for legislation to regulate the industry.

The commissioner added a critical analysis of statements and motives of witnesses who have opposed packer regulation during the hearings of the committee on the Kenyon and Kendrick bills last year, concluding with the assertion that in the meat industry, competition is continuing to lessen and monopoly to increase even though we exhaust the powers of present federal laws intended to restrain it.

"The first instance of the 'frame-up,'" he said, "had resulted in arrest of Rafael Mallon, a former clerk for the trade commission in Chicago. H. J. C. Claybaugh, head of the secret service at Chicago and his assistant a man named Barry, both of whom have since resigned, were responsible and Barry now was a special agent for Swift & Co."

RELATIONS WILL BE RESUMED

The second part of the ceremony will follow in the clock hall. The thirteen powers which have ratified the treaty of Versailles will be represented here by one delegate each.

Minutes will be drawn up on the following matters:

"Signing of the Versailles treaty, signing of the protocol attached to the treaty, and signing of the agreement with the United States, Belgium, Great Britain, France, and Germany, relative to occupation of the Rhine. OPERATORS DISCUSS FUTURE POLICY

Consider Attitude to Be Assumed
Toward Commission
Appointed by President Wilson.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The policy of the bituminous coal operators in the settlement of the coal strike issues and the attitude to be assumed toward the commission of three appointed by President Wilson to investigate wages and prices was considered today at a meeting of the wage scale committee of the central competitive field which was preliminary to the opening Monday of the commission's hearing. Although no announcement was made after today's meeting, it was learned that refusal to accept the commission as now constituted was advocated by some operators who have heretofore publicly charged that the body would begin its work with commitments. Most operators agreed that a declaration of their stand should be made before the work of the commission gets under way.

That this declaration would be either flat refusal to deal with the present commission or a statement of the operators' willingness to co-operate with reservations, appeared probable tonight. In opposing the commission as organized with one representative for each of the miners, operators and the public some operators argued that an impartial tribunal of all the members of which would represent the public would be more satisfactory.

Another course favored was to furnish the commission whatever information it might ask, but with the understanding that the operators would not consider themselves bound by the conclusions of the commission.

ISSUE SUBPOENAS FOR MARTENS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Subpoenas were issued today calling for the appearance of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled Russian soviet ambassador to the United States and his secretary, Santeri Nuorteva at the initial hearing Monday of the senate foreign relations subcommittee investigating Russian "propaganda" in the United States.

In announcing that he would appear before the committee, Nuorteva said Martens, for whom department of justice agents have been seeking with a warrant for arrest "would be produced so as to be served by the subpoena and also would appear at the hearing. Members of the subcommittee, Senators Borah, Knox, Pomerene and Shields, said that the examination of Martens and Nuorteva would occupy several sessions.

Nuorteva said recently that Martens would substantiate charges made by the "embassy" that certain planks in the Communist and Communist Labor party platforms which he claimed were the basis of the recent raids and deportation proceedings were framed by department of justice agents. Martens, he said, if permitted to testify would prove complicity of department of justice agents in the summer bomb plots.

FAST SUM NEEDED BY U. S. NEXT YEAR

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—The estimated requirements of the United States government, not including anything for the railroad administration for the next fiscal year were placed at $25,000,000,000 by Congressman James W. Good of Iowa, chairman of the house committee on appropriations in an address tonight before the Illinois Manufacturers' Association advocating a budget system.

The sum, he said, represented a per capita cost of $47 and a close friend of the tax gatherer would fall heavily on many of the people. He charged many government department heads with extravagance and deplored the lack of real business acumen in others. "No press bureau budget plan nor the British budget system will answer," he said, for the need of an American budget code. The tax payers were becoming more insistent for government fiscal efficiency.

TREATY BECOMES MORE UNSETTLED

Wilson's Message to Jackson
Day Diners Upsets Plans for Compromise

SOME SETATORS STILL HOPEFUL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The rumors of the treaty of Versailles became more unsettled today when, on top of President Wilson's Jackson Day pronouncement for taking the question to the people in the political campaign and William J. Bryan's opposition to such a course, Democratic and Republican friends of the treaty in the senate renewed their effort to secure a compromise ratification. Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, said he did not regard the president's decision as calculated to cut off any reasonable compromise, and predicted satisfaction before the campaign was underway. The mild reservation group of Republicans took much the same view. Discussion of compromise reservations was active, a conference being arranged by Republicans to take up the set of reservations submitted recently by Senator Kendrick of Wyoming and other Democrats. It was said a counter proposal might be drawn up within a few days and all of the parties to the negotiations seemed hopeful that an agreement ultimately would be reached.

Among the treaty's irreconcilable foes, however, the president's stand and the statement last night of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts that he "would most cordially welcome" the treaty as a political issue were hailed as having definitely put the question into the campaign. This group was more positive today than ever that there would be no agreement. Senator Hitchcock said that the Democrats could not agree to any compromise vital to the treaty and that there would be an endeavor to work out such reservations as the president could accept. Other Democrats, however, declared privately that they would take the best compromise they could get and then put the responsibility up to the white house.

This is a truth too often overlooked, due to the politician of the demagogue type, who bases his appeals for public support on attacks against financial interests. Mr. Bryan sometimes makes political mistakes but he has the best of the argument in his disagreement with President Wilson over the peace treaty and covenant. The former secretary believes in compromise and sees no good reason for the continued effort of the minority in the senate to control the majority.

The president is in the contradictory position of bemoaning the great damage done to humanity by the delay of the senate, and still he recommends a further delay of fourteen months by making it a national campaign issue and taking it before the people.

THIS PLAN WILL WORK

An eastern physician has made an extensive investigation about the modes of life of people who live long and others who have died prematurely. The announced results are far more sensible than one usually hears about special methods for the adding of years. This doctor says that "moderation in all things is the keynote and if people generally could be induced to follow this plan, that it would take less than a generation to add many years to the average life."

Keeping free from worry and practicing temperance in all lines will certainly turn the trick of long life if anything will do it.

The head of a large store recently confessed, to the Christian Science Monitor, that when a certain class of goods did not sell well, his best remedy was to increase the price. It was also remarked by an authority, a short time ago, that if the public would stop buying expensive goods for a day or two, the prices would come tumbling down. Another method, which proved quite effective, was recently adopted in the south of England, when a lady dairy-farmer, summoned on eighteen charges of selling butter above the maximum price fixed by the Food Controller, was found guilty and fined £10 for each offense. At the same time eight customers, who bought her butter at the excessive price were fined £2 each. If a few more examples like this were made, less might be heard about profiteering.

A MATTER OF WORDS Some years ago here in Jacksonville there used to be a minister noted for his eloquence. His rhetoric was beautiful and words always came to him "trippingly on the tongue." He had a great way of metaphorically waving the flag and in fact his sermons and addresses were made up quite largely of "flowers and flags."

After he left the city his popularity waned. People continued to think of him as a fine man but they came to the realization that while his sentences were perfectly formed, his language the choicest, his phrases full of sentiment, that after all it was largely a matter of words, words, words, and there was little of real helpful substance in his utterances.

The reading of President Wilson's message to the Jackson day banquet and some other of the comparatively recent statements from the president bring to mind this former Jacksonville minister.

PAPER CONSERVATION.

News papers throughout the United States are making an earnest effort to comply with the request that they effect ten per cent reduction in the use of print paper, as a means of conserving the supply. They are doing this at a sacrifice, because such conservation means to progressive business papers the slowing up of business expansion and curtailment of numerous activities in connection with the making of readable publications. To effect the saving, it has become necessary for many papers to abandon plans for increasing circulation and practically all papers are declining advertising contracts which, under ordinary circumstances would be gladly accepted. They are reserving such space as they have for customers who have first call on their services.

The general policy in allotting space is to care first for local advertisers whose business depends wholly upon patronage from the territory in which the newspaper circulates. General advertisers whose goods are handled by local dealers and whose business is interwoven with the paper, come next. The effort of publishers is to avoid rejection of advertising calculated to stimulate local business.

A FRANCHISE TAX.

Secretary of State, Louis L. Emmerson, has mailed a copy of the annual report to each of the 35,000 domestic and foreign corporations transacting business in this state, which report must be executed and returned to him on or before March 1, 1920.

This is the first report to be mailed to corporations under the provisions of the General Corporation Act of this State, which became effective July 1, 1919. The purpose of this annual report is to ascertain whether or not each corporation is complying with the provisions of the Statute and the amount of its capital stock employed in this state, in order that the Secretary of State may determine the amount of franchise tax which will be due from it in July of this year.

Attorney Alvin C. Margrave, in charge of the Corporation Department, pointed out that the Statute makes it unlawful for the Secretary of State to accept and file this report after March 1st, without requiring the corporation to pay a penalty of $20. The corporation under such circumstances will also have a penalty of 10 per cent added to the amount of the franchise tax due from it and be subject to a fine of not to exceed $1,000.

It is contemplated that in order to escape these penalties that corporations will mail their returns at the earliest date possible in order that any correction or omission in the report may be made and the report filed within the required time.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

The Weed. Tobacco prices, too, have soared, in keeping with the price of board, of clothing, books and boots; and now we feel some mental jangle when we dig up for punk cigars, and cauliflower cheroots. There was an older, golden time when I could take a hard-earned dime, and buy a royal smoke; a torch that drove away my care, restored the color of my hair, and made grief seem a joke. But now the torch that costs a dime would drive the purchaser to crime, to arson and the like; it's made of rhubarb leaves and sage, and off the smoker, in a rage, invokes the shade of Mike. The time has come, I must admit, when it is wisdom true to quit the habit, once for all: for most cigars are made of tripe, the stuff we purchase for the pipe is ground up overall. And only plutocrats can buy the honest weed, it comes so high, and "higher still" the news; what wonder that the poor man grieves? I'm tired of throwing coin away for sacks that should be labeled hay, but bear tobacco's brand; and so I say to every toff, "This is the time for swearing off! Let's do it, hand in hand!"

ROTARY CLUB MET AT LUNCHEON

Richard Y. Rowe Told Something of Clover Leaf Company Plans - Number of Guests Present.

At the Rotary club luncheon yesterday at the Pacific hotel Richard Y. Rowe was the principal speaker. Mr. Rowe had been asked to tell the club members something about the business now done by the company and the enlargement of business planned. It is a fact that comparatively few people realize the extent of the business now being done by this company, the growth that it has made in a comparatively few years, or the very bright prospects for its future, widening field of activity and the statement which will be made at the annual meeting to be held this month will without doubt contain much of general public interest.

Mr. Rowe did not make the statement referred to above, but in a very brief way told something of the company's history and plans.

Among the guests for the day were Frank H. Plover, F. E. Mauck, James Guyette, C. N. Priest, M. R. Triplady, Ernest Alford, S. C. Scrimmer and M. S. Keyes of the internal revenue department, and G. H. Brodt, representative of the International Shoe Co., of St. Louis.

A THOUGHTFUL DEED

Yesterday the writer was plodding down town in the middle of the street when an auto whirled by him, the driver avoiding the pedestrian. Soon the car was noted backing toward the one just past and as it stopped the driver, who proved to be Sherman Coultas, stopped and invited the pedestrian to him, remarking he had heard him talk to the Lynnville school and was pleased to give him a lift.

It was but a little thing, but it showed a spirit of true courtesy and thoughtfulness which is too often lacking in the young people of the present day. Much obliged, Sherman; your parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. have tried to train you right.

WILL HOLD ANNUAL ELECTION NEXT MONTH

Chamber of Commerce Directors Talk Over Plans - Year of Activity in Prospect - Invite State Firemen Here.

At a recent meeting of directors of the Chamber of Commerce Chairman Henry Frisch appointed a committee to make arrangements for the annual business meeting of the organization, to be held in February. This committee includes Fletcher Hopper, H. L. Caldwell, H. K. Chenoweth, L. T. Potter and T. A. Chapin.

In connection with the business meeting it is proposed to have a luncheon this year and at that time various matters of policy will be discussed. The number of inquiries now being received from industrial concerns seeking location indicates that the coming months will afford very opportune time for business organization activities.

In fact, two industrial concerns have made very definite inquiries about the possibility of locating here and have expressed their confidence in Jacksonville as affording a logical site for industrial business.

Many Seek Locations.

The plans of the business world these days are being shaped along most active lines and there is every thing to indicate a long period with conditions of a satisfactory kind to employers and employees. The industrial agents of the railroads state that there never was a time when so many manufacturing concerns were looking for locations. Not long since one of the railroads addressed letters to business organizations in all of the larger cities along its route, asking that the road be kept informed of any buildings of large size available for industrial concerns. It is partially because of the scarcity of some classes of building materials and the greatly increasing cost of construction that buildings already completed and available are much more in demand than during the years that are past.

Active Year Promised. It has not been a year of unusual activity in the Chamber of Commerce but the directors have nevertheless been called upon to pass upon many things and in a city size of Jacksonville the Chamber of Commerce fills a definite need. There is every thing to indicate that the coming months will very largely increase the work of the Chamber of Commerce and call for the earnest cooperation of the directors and the members.

An invitation was sent to the state firemen's association to hold the convention next year in Jacksonville. Fire Chief Sam Hunt will attend the convention at Murphysboro at an early date and will extend the invitation. In connection with each firemen's convention there are most interesting exhibits of fire apparatus.

MADE VISIT TO TORO MOTOR PLANT

Machine Produced There Will Modernize Power on the Farm

Theodore Hagel of the Jacksonville Farm Supply Co. has returned from Minneapolis, where he went to visit the plant of the Toro Motor Co. The product of this factory is the Toro power cultivator. It has been manufactured there for some years and used very satisfactorily in the west and northwest, altho comparatively new to Illinois.

The cultivator can easily be converted into a tractor and there are scores of uses for the machine on the farm other than merely in cultivating corn. Discs, drills and plows can be attached and in fact the Toro tractor provides a method for modernizing the farm and doing entirely away with horse power.

A COMMENDABLE WORK
A most commendable work is that which is being carried out by two of the adult Bible classes at the Grace M. E. church in this city. The two classes the Marys and Marthas and the men's class taught by J. J. Reeve have undertaken a work which will undoubtedly bring great results for good and the betterment of other lives. These two classes are supporting boys at the Chaddock School for Boys at Quincy. The school is a Methodist institution and one in which the boys are given educational and disciplinary training which fit them for the battle of life. Vocational training is also on the curriculum and those courses enable the youth to fit themselves for a trade or for farming, or dairying as their tastes or inclination may justify.

Three years ago Ernest Powells, then a lad of 9 years, was declared a delinquent and Dr. H. L. Griswold appointed his guardian. The Marys and Marthas of Grace church have since supported this boy at the Chaddock school and the remarkable development and progress which this young boy has made at the school and under the capable and fatherly guidance of Dr. Griswold is such that the guardian and the members of the class feel well repaid in the money and energy which they have expended to give this lad a chance for better things in life.

A few days ago, Ernest's young brother, John, aged 9 years, was also declared a delinquent by Judge Samuel and has been placed in the hands of Dr. H. L. Griswold for guidance. It is the intention to send John to the school also and the men's class have taken this matter under consideration.

Ernest is now one of the student heads of the dairy department at the school and rapidly developing into a scientific farmer and business man.

This is a phase of real Christian endeavor and is especially commendatory.

Fry Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup, either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified, molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heats the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. RECEIVES GUNSHOT WOUND IN HEAD

Arenzville Man Has Narrow Escape from Death Thursday Noon—Will Recover—Was Unconscious Twenty-Four Hours.

Robert Craig lies at his home, six miles east of Arenzville, as the result of a deep scalp wound on the back of the head caused by the discharge of a shotgun Thursday morning about 11 o'clock. The wound is not considered of an extremely serious nature and it is believed that the injured man will recover in a short time.

Mr. Craig was working about the house and yard most of the morning Thursday. Shortly before 11 o'clock he came to the house and took his double barreled shotgun with him and went to the buggy shed. A short time later his wife was startled by a report of the gun and rushed out of the house to find her husband on the floor of the buggy shed, the gun lying by his side, and blood flowing from a wound in his head.

Noah Thompson, a neighbor of Mr. Craig's was driving along the road past the house at the time, and at once went to Craig's assistance. The injured man was carried to the house where first aid was given him, and Dr. A. F. Streuter of Arenzville summoned. Dr. Streuter arrived in a short time and rendered the necessary medical attention.

Craig was rendered unconscious by the shot and so remained for a period of about twenty-four hours. Yesterday noon, however, he rallied somewhat, and regained consciousness for a time. Dr. Streuter was at his bedside and it is reported that as soon as Mr. Craig recovered consciousness so as to realize his whereabouts and his plight, he asked the doctor how it happened and what he did.

Mr. Craig, who is between 45 and 50 years of age, is one of the prominent farmers of the Arenzville vicinity. He has been in ill health for some time lately, suffering from low blood pressure, and has been taking treatments at the Norbury Sanatorium in Jacksonville being under the care of Dr. A. H. Dollner. Lately he was thought to be improving in health and spirits.

WAVERLY TEAMS WIN DOUBLE BILL FRIDAY

First Team Defeats Auburn By Narrow Margin in Rough Contest. Last Night—Second Team Trims Raymond in One Sided Game.

Waverly, Jan. 9.—(Special to Journal.)—Waverly high school emerged victor tonight from one of the hottest basketball contests ever waged on a local floor in the history of the school, when she downed Auburn, her old rival and opponent of the evening by a score of 16 to 14. The game was rough and fast and was surely a scrap for community honors from start to finish. The rivalry between the two teams is a matter of history dating back a number of years and the determination to win the game was shown by the fact that two of Waverly's stars, temporarily lost their usual cool headedness and were ruled off the floor in the final half. Both Redfern and Gorman were "chased" by Referee Antrobus for personal fouls. At the end of the first half the score stood 11 to 2 in favor of Auburn.

The game was full of thrills and no one or two players can be picked from the line-up as the particular stars of the game for the reason that all of the men showed their class as basketball players.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Mathis gave an interesting talk on "Sunday School Standards". Mr. Mathis said that at the Rock Island State Convention last June it was found that only two counties, Lee and Carroll counties, were up to the International Sunday School standards and these two counties have a city with more than seven thousand inhabitants. Mr. Mathis gave the following ten points as requirements for a standard Sunday School.

1. (5) Cradle Roll.
2. (5) Home Department.
3. (5) Organized Young People's Class.
4. (5) Organized and Registered Adult Class.
5. (10) Teacher Training Class.
6. (5) Graded Instruction.
7. (5) Missionary Instruction.
8. (5) Temperance Instruction.
9. (10) Definite Decision for Christ Urged.
10. (10) Workers Conference Regularly Held.

12. (10) Full Association Requirements.
13. (3) Annual Report to State Association.
14. (4) Delegates at Association.
15. (3) Offering for Association Work.

Following Mr. Mathis, Dr. Koppel, the local general chairman of the convention committee was called on. His topic dealt with the State Sunday School convention which will be held here next June. Two thousand delegates are expected to attend this convention. C. L. Mathis was appointed chairman of the entertainment committee and T. M. Tomlinson was appointed chairman of the transportation committee for the coming convention. There are to be ten other committee appointments.

C. O. Bayha, the Morgan County Sunday School treasurer in a short talk set forth the Sunday Schools part in financing the convention. Every Sunday School will be charged five cents per enrollment of which two cents goes to the county organization and three cents to the state and international organization.

Mrs. Guy was then called on and she related some of her experiences at the state convention that was held last June.

J. Findley who is the county secretary for the association made a talk on "Correspondence, Records and Reports." He also talked about the "Father and Sons" banquet and the "Efficiency Conference" to be held here next June and urged that the boys and girls organizations in the different Sunday Schools cooperate with the local committee to make the Sunday School convention a success.

Mr. Findley was followed by A. C. Metcalf, secretary of the committee on the state convention here, who made a few remarks on the convention.

A. C. Rice followed Mr. Metcalf. Mr. Rice made a lengthy address on finance in the Sunday Schools and church of the county. Chairman Crum dismissed the meeting with a few closing remarks.

It was announced that an all day conference will be held next Friday at the Centenary church. This meeting will be an "Efficiency Conference."

ROUTT HIGH SWAMPS WINCHESTER FIVE

Local Aggregation of Basketball Tossers Wins Game on Liberty Hall Floor Last Night By 26 to 4 Score.

The Routt high school five stepped on the visitors from Winchester at Liberty Hall last night to the tune of 26 to 4 in their basketball clash. In spite of the fact that the one sided score may indicate otherwise, the game was a good one from a players' and spectators' point of view, being fast and clean. The local team outclassed the visitors at all times, and while the Winchester boys at times displayed flashes of major league form they showed a lack of team work and ability to shoot the baskets which is necessary to win games. Redshaw at forward and Shillinger at one of the guard positions, showed up well for the visitors.

Zell, Rook and Carson were the main point winners for Routt, and the two guards, Woulfe and Gwinn deserve especial mention for their work on the defense, the visitors being unable to shoot a single basket from the field.

THE GREAT CAUSE OF MISSIONS

Interesting Meeting at Westminster Church Last Evening.

A short time since at Des Moines, Iowa, was held a gathering of the Student Volunteer Workers, composed of young people especially devoted to the cause of missions. It was a grand gathering and some reports were heard. Rev. E. B. Landis presided and explained the object of the meeting to be in the great movement of gathering in the young and interesting them in the mighty work to be done. He offered an earnest prayer and then announced different speakers, first from Illinois College. Of the remarks of each but a short outline is given.

Mr. Scott: The gathering at Des Moines was the largest in the history of the movement, more than 8000 persons being present from practically all parts of the world. The great slogan of the meeting was: "The world for Christ during this generation". The religion of Christ is the only one that is for all and satisfies the needs of man. The Mohammedan religion is for men only, women being debarred, having no souls and children not cared for. Thirteen millions of these people are now free from the misrule of Turkey and susceptible to Christian influences. It must be admitted the Mohammedan knows his Koran better than the Christian knows his Bible, but its value is naught. Home life as it should be is unknown where polygamy exists. So, too, are the Hindu religion, the religion of Buddha and Confucius all lacking in soul saving qualities.

Miss Marshall: The keynote of the meeting was foreign missions. While all cannot go to heathen lands, all can be equally interested in the great cause. A young man from southwestern Europe learned the English language and came to this country, landing in New York. He first fell in with a settlement where Yiddish was spoken; then successively Greek, Russian and Italian till he asked where America was and finally found it. We are all foreigners, only some of our ancestors have been here longer than others.

Miss Byers of the Woman's College then most sweetly sang that lovely hymn, "There's a Green Hill Far Away" after which delegates from that institution were introduced.

Miss Clotpeiter: Non-Christian religions have all failed to supply the great need of mankind and Christianity alone is able to satisfy the soul's need. Three problems or questions present themselves. Is Christianity able to bring peace on earth and good will to men?

Is it the religion which will solve the great social and other problems in this land?

Is it able to supply the personal needs of each one?

If we answer these questions in the affirmative, then the great mission of each is to study, not to make a fortune or glory but to make a life in our own circle or in any place in which our lot may be cast. The law of progress is the law of service.

Miss Bell: The medical side of missions is of inestimable importance. Millions of lives are sacrificed in foreign lands through lack of medical education. Witch doctors in Africa are a never ending source of evil while in China, India and other lands little is known of the simple laws of health and medicine. Notice doctors are all important to go among their own and teach the rules of healthy living and wise way to combat disease. Education is all important. Democracy is coming to the front in all lands, but people cannot wisely govern themselves till they have education and educated leaders. Ours is the most favored nation on earth and we should share our blessings with others. The lives and example of teachers are of supreme importance.

Miss Hills: We need national and international Christianity. The present offers a mighty opportunity for service and if we cannot go abroad ourselves, the responsibility is equally great at home. The number of unconverted heathen is legion and they are holding out their hands to America as never before. Whether at home or in foreign fields, our interest and efforts should be the same.

Rev. Collins' Address.
Rev. W. E. Collins made a fine address. He said in part: I recently at a great gathering saw a number of persons commissioned as foreign missionaries and when each was asked the great impelling influence in his life, the majority said it was mother's influence. The question that presses home to me tonight is to ask each one "How much do you owe to your mother?" We have the grandest country and opportunity

We are accepting delayed shipments and balances on orders due us of winter goods which we should have had two months ago. We take them now because the values are good, much lower than we could replace at this time. We're not speculators so you can buy them here now, at the same low basis we bought them.

in the world and the question that comes home with force to each is what is the debt and what for? What do we owe for worldly blessings? I once knew an irreligious man, very wealthy, who gave liberally to religious work and I asked him why he did it and he replied that without churches in the community this great business world would be worthless. A man once on his way to South America stopped in New Orleans and a friend asked him why he was going to South America and drew a true and sad picture of the land devoid of true christian influences.

What do we owe for our precious homes? A musical leader was once conducting a concert. He gave the choicest classical selections, but the audience was cold. Finally abandoning these he gave "Home Sweet Home" and the audience rose en masse with enthusiasm. What would you take to blot out of your life the influence of home and mother?

What do you owe for the knowledge that God is your Father? No matter how dark the future may be, we know He is guiding us. Would you for any money sign away the hope in God and eternity? When we regard these things we feel indeed bankrupt, but the Master has paid the debt and it is for us to show our gratitude by serving Him faithfully.

When the French republic was threatened with destruction in 1793 an edict went forth that all classes would do what they could; even the aged were to arouse the others by speech and eloquence and so by a grand united effort the day was won. When Stanley would explore Africa and Shackelford seek the South Pole, hundreds were ready to go along. When the Roman emperor would stamp out Christianity a century found in his hand forty men who go to torture and death for Christ. A boy in a camp knelt down by his cot each night for prayer. They ridiculed him at first, but came to admire him later and he was sent from place to place to carry his good example.

A young man in a great Canadian university went among the medical students especially worldly and irreligious and his influence was immense. He went among the law students with the effect and among other departments and when they needed a man to take charge of a great work across the water he was sent.

Christianity appeals to all. A young man chose the ministry when he might have selected a calling which would have made him rich. We must lay our all on the altar, be it wealth, influence, our lives in the ministry at home or abroad or wherever the Master would have us go.
